The description of the principle provisions of the Constitutional amendment:

The Constitutional amendment will make it a crime for any person within this State to attempt or actually aid or give a pregnant woman an abortion with the exception that it can be done to save here life. This would include any medical procedure as well as any medication to cause an abortion or miscarriage. The pregnant woman cannot be tried under this law. This would exclude other reasons for abortion including rape, incest and physical deformities with the embryo or fetus. This would just reestablish the Arizona Law before Roe v. Wade found in A.R.S. § 13-3603.
